

Village Comparison Document

Retirement Villages Act 1999 (Section 74)

This form is effective from 1 February 2019

ABN: 86 504 771 740

Name of village: Bribie Cove Retirement Village

Important information for the prospective resident

- The Village Comparison Document gives general information about the retirement village accommodation, facilities and services, including the general costs of moving into, living in and leaving the retirement village. This makes it easier for you to compare retirement villages.
- The Retirement Villages Act 1999 requires a retirement village scheme operator to:
 - provide a copy of the Village Comparison Document to a prospective resident of the retirement village within seven days of receiving a request
 - include a copy of the Village Comparison Document with any promotional material given to a person, other than through a general distribution (e.g. mail-out)
 - publish the Village Comparison Document on the village's website so that the document, or a link to it appears prominently on each page of the website that contains, or has a link to, marketing material for the village
- You can access a copy of this Village Comparison Document on the village website at www.mckenzieacg.com.
- All amounts in this document are GST-inclusive, unless stated otherwise where that is permitted by law.

Notice for prospective residents

Before you decide whether to live in a retirement village, you should:

- Seek independent legal advice about the retirement village contract – there are different types of contracts and they can be complex
- Find out the financial commitments involved – in particular, you should understand and consider ingoing costs, ongoing fees and charges (which can increase) and how much it will cost you when you leave the village permanently
- Consider any impacts to any pensions, rate subsidies and rebates you currently receive
- Consider what questions to ask the village manager before signing a contract
- Consider whether retirement village living provides the lifestyle that is right for you. Moving into a retirement village is very different to moving into a new house. It involves buying into a village with communal facilities where usually some of the costs of this lifestyle are deferred until you leave the village. These deferred costs when you leave your unit may be significant.
- Seek further information and advice to help with making a decision that is right for you. Some useful contacts are listed at the end of this document, including:
 - Queensland Retirement Village and Park Advice Service (QRVPAS) which provides free information and legal assistance for residents and prospective residents of retirement village. See www.caxton.org.au or phone 07 3214 6333.

- The Queensland Law Society which can provide a list of lawyers who practice retirement village law. See www.qls.com.au or phone: 1300 367 757.

More information

- If you decide to move into a retirement village, the operator will provide you with a Prospective Costs Document for your selected unit, a residence contract and other legal documents.
- By law, you must have a copy of the Village Comparison Document, the Prospective Costs Document, the village by-laws, your residence contract and all attachments to your residence contract for at least 21 days before you and the operator enter into the residence contract. This is to give you time to read these documents carefully and seek professional advice about your legal and financial interests. You have the right to waive the 21-day period if you get legal advice from a Queensland lawyer about your contract.

The information in this Village Comparison Document is correct as at 26 November 2024 and applies to prospective residents.

Some of the information in this document may not apply to existing residence contracts.

COSTS AND FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT

Part 9 – Ingoing contribution - entry costs to live in the village

An ingoing contribution is the amount a prospective resident must pay under a residence contract to secure a right to reside in the retirement village. The ingoing contribution is also referred to as the sale price or purchase price. It does not include ongoing charges such as rent or other recurring fees.

9.1 What is the estimated ingoing contribution (sale price) range for all types of units in the village	Accommodation Unit	Range of ingoing contribution
		Independent living units
	- Studio
	- One bedroom
	- Two bedrooms	$510,000 to $530,000
	- Three bedrooms	$580,000 to $600,000
	Serviced units
	- Studio
	- One bedroom
	- Two bedrooms
	- Three bedrooms
	Other
	Full range of ingoing contributions for all unit types	$510,000 to $600,000

9.2 Are there different financial options available for paying the ingoing contribution and exit fee or other fees and charges under a residence contract? If yes: specify or set out in a table how the contract options work e.g. pay a higher ingoing contribution and less or no exit fee.	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No Standard Option A resident may select the Standard Option. This means: (a) the exit fee is based on the ingoing contribution; (b) the resident will not be required to contribute to renovation costs; and (c) the resident will not participate in capital gains and losses. Capital Gain Option A resident may select the Capital Gain Option. This means: (a) the resident will receive 50% of any capital gain and bear 100% of any capital loss on resale of the unit; (b) the exit fee is based on the resale price (not the resident's ingoing contribution amount); and (c) the resident will pay 50% of any renovation costs on termination of the lease. Discount Option If a resident requests, the operator at its sole discretion may elect to apply a Discount Purchase Option. This means: (a) the full ingoing contribution payable by the resident will be reduced by a Discounted Amount; (b) the exit entitlement is based on the reduced ingoing contribution (being the full ingoing contribution minus the discounted amount); and (c) the exit fee is still based on the full ingoing contribution. For further clarification, the exit entitlement will be calculated as: reduced ingoing contribution – exit fee (based on the full ingoing contribution) – any other deductions under items 11.2 and 12 of this document.
9.3 What other entry costs do residents need to pay?	<input type="checkbox"/> Transfer or stamp duty <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Costs related to your residence contract Operator note: These costs include the operator's costs and expenses in relation to signing, settlement and registration of the residence contract, as well as sketch plan costs and registration fees. <input type="checkbox"/> Costs related to any other contract <input type="checkbox"/> Advance payment of General Services Charge <input type="checkbox"/> Other costs

Part 10 – Ongoing Costs - costs while living in the retirement village

General Services Charge: Residents pay this charge for the general services supplied or made available to residents in the village, which may include management and administration, gardening and general maintenance and other services or facilities for recreation and entertainment described at 7.1.

Maintenance Reserve Fund contribution: Residents pay this charge for maintaining and repairing (but not replacing) the village's capital items e.g. communal facilities, swimming pool. This fund may or may not cover maintaining or repairing items in your unit, depending on the terms of your residence contract.

The budgets for the General Services Charges Fund and the Maintenance Reserve Fund are set each financial year and these amounts can increase each year. The amount to be held in the Maintenance Reserve Fund is determined by the operator using a quantity surveyor's report.

Note: The following ongoing costs are all stated as weekly amounts to help you compare the costs of different villages. However, the billing period for these amounts may not be weekly.

interest in the unit. Renovation costs are shared between the former resident and operator in the same proportion as any capital gain is to be shared under the residence contract.

Part 13– Capital gain or losses

13.1 When the resident’s interest or right to reside in the unit is sold, does the resident share in the capital gain or capital loss on the resale of their unit?

Yes, the resident’s share of the capital gain is % the resident’s share of the capital loss is %
is based on a formula

Optional - residents can elect to share in a capital gain or loss option – if a resident has selected the capital gain option, then:
the resident’s share of the capital gain is 50%
the resident’s share of the capital loss is 100%
~~is based on a formula~~

If a resident has selected the Standard Option or Discount Option, then the resident does not participate in any capital gain or capital loss.

No

Part 14 – Exit entitlement or buyback of freehold units

An exit entitlement is the amount the operator may be required to pay the former resident under a residence contract after the right to reside is terminated and the former resident has left the unit.

14.1 How is the exit entitlement which the operator will pay the resident worked out?

Standard Option

Exit Entitlement =

- ingoing contribution you paid,
- less exit fee,
- less reinstatement costs (if any),
- less operator’s legal fees,
- less sale costs for the unit, and
- less any other amounts owing e.g. outstanding general service charges and water charges etc.

Capital Gain Option

Exit Entitlement =

- ingoing contribution you paid,
- less exit fee,
- plus 50% of any capital gain on the resale or less 100% of any capital loss on the resale,
- less reinstatement costs (if any),
- less 50% of renovation costs,
- less operator’s legal fees,
- less sale costs for the unit, and
- less any other amounts owing e.g. outstanding general services charges and water charges etc.

Discount Option

	Exit Entitlement = <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • discounted ingoing contribution you paid (i.e. full ingoing contribution minus Discounted Amount), • less exit fee (based on the full ingoing contribution), • less reinstatement costs (if any), • less operator’s legal fees, • less sale costs for the unit, and • less any other amounts owing e.g. outstanding general service charges and water charges etc.
14.2 When is the exit entitlement payable?	By law, the operator must pay the exit entitlement to a former resident on or before the earliest of the following days: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the day stated in the residence contract <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ which ismonths after the termination of the residence contract ➤ which may range frommonths tomonths after the termination of the residence contract, depending on your contract option ➤ no date is stated in the residence contract • 14 days after the settlement of the sale of the right to reside in the unit to the next resident or the operator • 18 months after the termination date of the resident’s right to reside under the residence contract, even if the unit has not been resold, unless the operator has been granted an extension for payment by the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal (QCAT). In addition, an operator is entitled to see probate or letters of administration before paying the exit entitlement of a former resident who has died.
Freehold units only 14.2 Operator buyback of freehold units	When a resident sells a freehold unit, the resident is entitled to receive the resale price from the person who purchases the unit. At that time the resident must pay any exit fee to the operator. By law, the operator must purchase the freehold unit from the former resident if it has not sold to a new resident within 18 months after the termination of the residence contract, unless the operator has been granted an extension for payment by QCAT
14.3 What is the turnover of units for sale in the village?	0 accommodation units were vacant (but sold) as at the end of the last financial year 8 accommodation units were resold during the last financial year 2 months was the average length of time to sell a unit over the last three financial years ..... months was the average length of time to sell a unit over the last financial years (where retirement village has been registered for at least 1, but less than 3 years.
